Seattle Flavors | By Candace Dempsey

The Seattle area has many luscious options for dining out. Today's diners are experiencing the best of the region's establishments, including bin on the lake, a romantic wine bar and restaurant in Kirkland; Pallsade, a 20-year-old landmark waterfront restaurant in Seattle's Magnolia neighborhood; and Shanik, a lauded new Indian restaurant in the up-and-coming South Lake Union neighborhood.

Ivar's Acres of Clams, Pier 54, Seattle, 206-624-6852, ivars.com: The legendary Ivar's restaurant group, with nearly 30 locations throughout Washington, is celebrating its 75th anniversary. Boasting three full-service restaurants and 23 seafood bars, it is known for its daily fresh sheet, its award-winning chowders and its "acres of clams," served daily at the Pier 54 location on the Seattle waterfront.
